

Applied Faith – Part 1

Applied Faith #1

What kind of fruit is your tongue producing?

Are you released words or faith or words of fear?

To Confess means to come into agreement with

Proverbs 18:21

²¹Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

Faith works by love

²And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

³And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

Characteristics of Love

1 Corinthians 13: 4-7

Long suffering

Envies not

Vanteth not itself - to boast or brag about something

Doesn't behave in a way that it not fit

Does not look for its own benefit

Not easily provoked – it has a long fuse

Is not puffed up – some similarities to the easter Island statues – (haughty means you act superior or look down on others) – Puffed up is a person who is proud and vain—who wants to make themselves appear or seem bigger and better than they are

Iniquity is immoral or grossly unfair behavior – [Loosed not the house of his prisoners]

Love rejoices in the truth

Bear all things – means to help carry a burden, or endure something

Love is never in unbelief

Love has a basis of hope – Hebrews 11:1

To endure all things is to remain in difficult situations for the sake of others

⁴ Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

⁵ Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

⁶ Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

⁷ Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

⁹ For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

¹⁰ But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

¹¹ When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

¹² For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.
